About Kids In Concert

Empowering every child to thrive through music, mentorship, and community

KIC is dedicated to free, high-quality music education and performance opportunities for children. We believe that every child deserves the chance to learn, create, and perform music regardless of background, ability, or identity.

Founded in 2010 as a partnership with the Suquamish Tribe's Early Learning Center, KIC has grown into a four-day-a-week music and youth development program serving 90 students ages 6-18 from across North Kitsap County, including Bainbridge Island, Poulsbo, Suquamish, Kingston, Indianola, and beyond.

More than a music program

Your support funds:

1

Quality instruction and performance opportunities. Individual and small group instruction in strings and percussion, plus participation in ensemble and choir.

2

Equitable access. KIC is a barrier-free environment where all students are welcomed. There are no auditions, no tuition, and no prior experience is needed.

3

Youth development. Our programming cultivates compassion, developmental wellbeing, and leadership, producing graduates ready to contribute to positive social change.

We believe that music is for everyone.

- 45% of our students are BIPOC
- 19% are tribal members
- Students come from all socioeconomic backgrounds and represent all ages and developmental stages.
- Straight, LGBTQ+, neurodivergent and neurotypical, KIC students show up as their full selves, knowing that they will be celebrated for who they are.

Build your community while supporting ours.

KIC is a community-serving organization. In addition to our 90 students, 11 teachers, and 60 families, KIC performs throughout the year in community-facing events throughout Bainbridge and North Kitsap, including two annual concerts, 6-8 chamber group performances, educational programs, and our annual musical theater camp summer camp performance. Up to 3000 community members attend our performances every year, over 800 receive our newsletter, and 200 of our most engaged supporters attend our annual gala.

Align your brand with our core values: compassionate community-building, access to artistic opportunities, and healthy and inclusive youth development.
